⚠ Important Travel Advice – Please Read

Barons Court tube station is undergoing major refurbishment works throughout 2026.

As a result, platforms will be closed at different points during the year, which may affect your journey or cause delays. For a smoother and more reliable journey on exam day, families may wish to travel via Hammersmith tube station instead, which is fully operational and step-free.

By Tube

Hammersmith tube station

- Approx. 10-minute walk (around 900 metres)
- Served by the District, Piccadilly, Hammersmith & City and Circle lines
- Fully accessible with step-free access

Barons Court tube station

- Approx. 3–5 minute walk (around 200 metres)
- Served by the District and Piccadilly lines
- ⚠ Subject to platform closures during 2026
  - Eastbound platform closed: 19 January – June 2026
  - Westbound platform closed: Mid-July – end of 2026

West Kensington tube station

- Approx. 10-minute walk (around 800 metres)
- Not step-free due to stairs between street level and platforms

By Rail

If travelling into London by train, families are advised to check the National Rail website for the latest travel information, including any disruption or strike action.

By Car & Parking

LAMDA is outside the Congestion Charge Zone, however no on-site parking is available.

- Nearest public car park: Kings Mall car park
- Postcode: W6 0BT

Public transport is strongly recommended.

A single disabled parking space may be available by prior arrangement. Please contact LAMDA directly on 020 8834 0530 to discuss this in advance.
